

Naturally sustainable

The most comprehensive organic product range on the market

Who we are. We are producers

We are a Cooperative.
We are a benchmark in the production and sale of Mediterranean fruit, citrus fruit and vegetables.

We care about food production, protect nature and the rural environment, and recognise the hard work of our members and their families. We look after our natural environment because it is our livelihood, and we are responsible for keeping the planet healthy and safeguarding the legacy we leave to future generations.

We cater for all of your needs

We have extensive sales and logistics experience, which means we can offer you a personalised service you can trust.

We work to cater for your needs, as our priority is to respond to consumer demands.

Lovingly organic

Long production season

Thanks to the abundance and richness of our production areas, we can offer a broad range of seasonal organic product references to supply our customers across Europe.

We aim to protect the environment, ensure food safety and guarantee our work is sustainable. We control the entire process from planning, crop monitoring and quality control through to dispatch.
